Human Resources

This range of Recruitment services are indicative of our HR offering. They allow our clients to divert their HR talents toward more strategic work.

Candidate Search

- Allow us to do the leg work for initial search and round 1 filtering. This will free up your consultants to do the higher value tasks after shortlists are available

CV Filtering & Formatting

- Any CV service - usually formatting CVs to your standards

Background Checks

- We will compile check data or even conduct the search and make the calls

Candidate Database Maintenance

- Maintaining the currency of candidate details can be a huge overhead. Infitecs can help you source and trawl through the updates
